

COMMUNITY FOUNDATION OF WEST TEXAS PRIVACY POLICY

PRIVACY STATEMENT

The purpose of the Community Foundation of West Texas website is to inform and educate visitors about our work as a grantmaker, community resource and philanthropic partner to local individuals, families and businesses. The Community Foundation of West Texas is committed to honoring the privacy of all those we work with, including visitors to our website and subscribers to our electronic newsletters.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

The right to privacy is very important to us. We recognize that providing the Community Foundation of West Texas with personal information is an act of trust. Visitors to Community Foundation of West Texas online remain anonymous, as we do not require registration to view our website or access information.

The foundation may occasionally ask for feedback via surveys or other communications to better understand visitor's interests and needs. We will also request information through online forms used to register for a foundation event or request additional information about the foundation. The foundation does not share or make public any personal information gathered through our website.

PUBLIC INFORMATION

IRS Forms 990 and affiliated schedules for the past three years are made available to the public online.

Lists of donors, other than those published in the annual report, are not available to the public. We do not reveal the name of anonymous donors to the recipient of a grant.

THIRD PARTY SITES

Throughout our website, we offer links to third party sites. Since we do not control those websites, we encourage visitors to review their privacy policies as well.

COMMUNICATIONS

If at any time an individual wishes to stop receiving Community Foundation of West Texas's electronic newsletters or other communications, or to be removed from our email list, they may unsubscribe from that list as explained in each message. The Community Foundation of West Texas will not give email addresses to other organizations; however, we may occasionally send mailings regarding events, products or services by reputable third parties if we think they may be of interest. In such circumstances, we do not provide the organization with information, but send the mailing ourselves.
